A Handbook on International Wilderness Law and Policy

Cyril F. Kormos, Editor

The first comprehensive guide to international wilderness laws, this handbook offers a detailed how-to guide for conservation professionals interested in developing new wilderness laws or policies in their country. Includes case studies of wilderness laws and policies written by leading conservationists from 12 countries and one indigenous group. The book's powerful matrix allows for easy comparison of the different wilderness definitions in use around the world.

CYRIL F. KORMOS is Vice President for Policy at The WILD Foundation where he leads the The Wild Planet Project initiative. He is also a member of, and helps manage the IUCN-WCPA Wilderness Task Force, which is co-Chaired by WILD. Prior to coming to The WILD Foundation, Mr. Kormos worked for Conservation International where he was Senior Director for Program Management in the President's Office, Staff Attorney, and Director of CI's Policy Program. Mr. Kormos holds a B.A. in English from the University of California at Berkeley, an M.Sc. in Politics of the World Economy from the London School of Economics, and a J.D. from the George Washington University Law School. Mr. Kormos served on the editorial boards of the LSE's Millennium Journal of International Studies, and GWU's The Environmental Lawyer.
